FROM THE EDITOR

While attending the Office Workers conference, I attended a Breakout Session called “Beyond the Breakwater”. It introduced a unique approach to outreach in the community in a sustainable fashion. Sustainable in cost and in giving people back the ability to help themselves. For churches like ours it would have to be a joint effort with other churches, but it was thought provoking. I encourage you to take a few minutes to listen to the introduction and a few podcasts.

OVERVIEW

Pete Prochnow, Director of Worship Arts & Community Engagement for the Michigan District, invites you to come with him to Beyond the Breakwater in Midland at Messiah Church.

Beyond the Breakwater is all about mobilizing the church and caring for your community. After gathering at Messiah for an introduction to the philosophy behind the ministry, you will spend time in the community and see it in action.

You will gain knowledge of the structure, driving force, and activities within Messiah's ministry to the community. We then would encourage you to make a return trip and bring others with you, so they can experience for themselves what it means to go Beyond the Breakwater in their community. For more information about Beyond the Breakwater, you can listen to their podcast

"When Jesus returns, all who believe in Him will be raised up from death to live in His presence forever. That is the promise of His enduring, steadfast love: 'I am sure of this, that He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ' (Philippians 1:6). The purpose of God for us will be fulfilled!" Dr. Carol Geisler, Lutheran Hour Ministries – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org
